

Kayshawnia Torres

Assistant Principal for Instruction - Cranbury Elementary School

We are pleased to announce that Kayshawnia Torres has been selected as Assistant Principal for Instruction at Cranbury Elementary School.

Ms. Torres is starting her 9th year in education, all of which have transpired in the state of Virginia. Having served as an Elementary Classroom Teacher, Instructional Coach, Assistant Principal, and Principal we believe that her multifaceted background will be an asset to our school division. Ms. Torres is extremely honored and excited to accept the position as Assistant Principal of Instruction at Cranbury Elementary School where she hopes to inspire students, staff, and the community every day.

Her educational philosophy is based on her uncompromising belief that all students can learn, but not on the same day in the same way. Ms. Torres promotes a positive learning environment, strong and knowledgeable leadership, a committed and focused educational team, and an encouraging community. Her goal as an instructional leader is to passionately lead students and instructors and best serve families and community members to ensure the overall success of the school and foster productive well-rounded students.

Ms. Torres enjoys spending time with family and friends in her spare time. Traveling to beautiful beaches is a hobby of hers. She is excited about her new chapter in life as a school leader in Norwalk.

Ms. Torres has her Master of Education in Administration & Supervision from Liberty University. She also holds a Bachelor of Science in Liberal Studies with a concentration in Elementary Education from Longwood University.
