

Reginald Roberts

Educational Administrator for Pathways and Innovation

We are pleased to announce that Reginald Roberts has been promoted and selected as the Educational Administrator for Pathways and Innovation. Mr. Roberts has served as the Principal of Norwalk High School since 2012. Prior to his role as Principal, he worked with the Stamford Public Schools district in several capacities for fifteen years. He served as the Program Director for Social Studies, developed the Grade 6-12 Social Studies Curriculum, and taught middle school grades during his tenure. He was promoted as the Assistant Principal at Westhill High School where he supervised and evaluated the Business, Language Arts, Facilities, Pupil Personnel Services, Social Studies, and Special Education departments as well as school nurses, paraeducators, two class advisors, and substitute teachers.

Mr. Roberts holds a Master of Education and Human Development and Psychology from Harvard University, and a Bachelor of Arts in History from Yale University.
